

MIKE FOSTER

Brings Computer Technology into Focus

IN PLAIN ENGLISH

Mike Foster has been helping audiences understand and enjoy using information technology for years. As an experienced communicator and seasoned IT systems engineer, he specializes in teaching people the "tricks of the trade" that can be immediately applied.

His keynote presentations, workshops, writings and consulting are designed and customized to make your work safe, efficient and successful. He has delivered over 1,000 presentations in the U.S. and around the world on practical solutions to high-tech concerns in an entertaining, informative, "high touch" style.

PICK A TOPIC...

TECHNOLOGY WITH A TWIST

Mike demystifies computers, networking and data protection, guiding even beginners to becoming e-Savvy and confident. He makes IT easy-to-understand and apply with solid information and good humor. IT confidence equates to greater productivity and profit.

Mike is a sought after consultant who often serves as a skilled interpreter between management and IT departments providing important and insightful results for both.

INTERNET MARKETING SECRETS

- > Things you need to know to keep your competitive advantage anywhere, anytime
- > Utilize the other 90% of your website's potential and have more time in your life
- > Maximize your client relationships to improve your sales results.

The solutions are all at the tips of your fingers.

IT SECURITY...IT MATTERS!

Our reliance on information technology and its rapid expansion has made IT security essential. Learn to demystify the tools at your disposal to increase security and protect your clients against identity theft.

If the firewalls in government institutions, the halls of finance, and the Pentagon have been breached, so can yours. Protect yourself.

...OR DESIGN YOUR OWN CUSTOM TOPIC

Learn about backup strategies, domain and spam protection, secure remote access, cutting IT costs, or getting the most from your PDA's.

All of Mike Foster's presentations can be customized to reinforce the objective of your meeting, and have immediate "take home" value.

Meet Mike Foster

As founder and president of The Foster Institute, Mike is accustomed to skillfully providing people with solutions to their high-tech issues. He frequently works as an “interpreter” between IT departments and management, providing important and insightful results for both groups. As a prolific author he is regularly sought for interviews and business publication features.

Most importantly, he is easy to work with and understand.
